PRESIDENTS WELCOME

On behalf of the President and Committee of the Gundagai P&A Society I am firstly delighted to invite you and your family to our 129th Annual show, and in doing so I thank the many sponsors and advertisers of the Gundagai Show. Without these contributions and the hard working Show Committee, the show as we know it, would not go on.

This year's program kicks off on Friday with mainly show jumping. Show jumping at Gundagai, which is quickly becoming the major Showjumping competition in New South Wales continues until Sunday afternoon. Come and see some of the best riders in Australia competing. It's worth the effort to spend some time watching these events

Please note that entry to the showgrounds on Friday and Sunday is FREE.

Saturday will be a day of fun filled family activities. Local radio station – Sounds of the Mountains – will be broadcasting live from the showgrounds on Saturday.

Bendy Em will have you on the edge of your seat as she comedically bends and contorts her body into freakily mind-boggling positions. If you want to see something memorable and entirely out of the norm watch Bendy Em squeeze herself into a tiny 16" Perspex Box balanced on a 7ft rig. This show should not be missed!

We also have Lachie Cossor – Animal wrangler - coming to our show in a demonstration which has been described as 'orchestrated chaos'. It is a fun show with some horsemanship, working dog, crowd participation, its educational with a comedy spin on it. It includes Horses, Ponys, Pigs, Dogs, Sheep, a goat and an over sized Bullock, that all have their place in the show.

There will also be the usual events such as Sheep, Cattle, Horses, Poultry, Pavilion Exhibits, Yard dogs and Sheep Dog Trials, Cattle Dog Trials, Show dogs, Birds, Animal Nursery, Wildlife display, Majura Magician, Face painting, Cartoon portraits, Stalls, Vintage cars, Sideshow alleys, Show Bags and Chainsaw sculptures.

The Annual Show showcases our district and beyond, and we continue to see the very best agricultural exhibits and Community displays on offer.

We are proud of our Annual Show and Community Spirit it generates. The show would not survive without the local community and the generous support from our Members, Sponsors and advertisers.

Schedule sections can be found on our website at <https://www:gundagaishow.com.au>. Members of the public entering any of the many varied schedule sections can lodge their entry, prior to the Show, at the temporary Show Office at old Gundagai Real Estate, Sheridan Street. The Office will open from 10.00am to 4.00 on Monday 10th Feb. until Thursday 13th Feb. Our thanks to new owners for allowing the use of their offices for that period.

I invite each and every one of you to come along and be part of this 129th Annual Gundagai Pastoral & Agricultural Show.

Paul Luff.

4. The Stewards may, if they think fit, require any exhibitor to make a statutory declaration that his or her exhibit fills all the required conditions in the schedule for prizes competed for.
5. No tents, booths or hawkers will be allowed on the ground without permission of the Secretary or the Ground Space Stewards.

8. All protests must be delivered to the Secretary not later than one hour after the running of the event, after which no protest will be entered, and such protest must be decided by the Protest Committee. 2. Stewards will be expected to see that the exhibits are properly classed, and that all exhibits in each class are placed together ready for judging.
3. Stewards will obtain the Judge's Book from the Secretary, and deliver the same to the Judges and direct them to the exhibits they are appointed to judge.
4. Stewards will remove all the exhibitors, and others, from the vicinity of the Judges while judging.
5. Stewards will attend to the Judges to afford them any information required, but must not do or say anything to influence their decision. They will not reveal the name of any exhibitor or repeat any remark the Judges may make to each other.
6. Stewards shall obtain the Judge's Book from the Judge when filled up and signed, and deliver same to the Secretary.
7. Stewards will obtain the Prize Cards from the Secretary, and affix them to the exhibits as soon as practicable.
8. Stewards will report to the Secretary any disobedience to their orders, or disorderly conduct on the part of exhibitors or those in charge of exhibits.

JUDGES

Judges will attend on the Show Ground at the hour appointed, and report themselves to the Secretary and to the stewards of the respective classes, but shall not proceed to inspect the exhibits until it is intimated to them that all arrangements preparatory to their proceeding to view the exhibits are completed.
10. The Judges shall, in the case of livestock, decide on the merits of each animal as it stands, without reference to pedigree or the name or place of the exhibitor or breeder, and they shall exclude from their consideration any animal which in their opinion does not come within the class for which it is entered for competition, but should they have doubts as to the age or breeding of the exhibits, they shall call upon the exhibitor to satisfy them that the animal has been properly entered.
11. The Judges will not only enter in their report those exhibits entitled to the premiums, but also the others in each class which they consider most worthy of note.
12. Having formed his/her opinion, the Judge shall sign and deliver their report to the Stewards in charge, and having done so, not afterwards propose any change. When the signed report shall have been delivered over to the Steward, the duties of the Judge shall cease.
13. In cases of close competition, the Judge shall be allowed to divide first prize and shall report the same.

14. The Judge may award a second or third prize instead of a first one, or may withhold a prize altogether where there is only one exhibit, or where the exhibits are not considered worthy.
15. No Judge shall be an exhibitor in the department in which he may be judge.
16. The decision of the Judge shall be final, and without appeal.
17. Prize winners should obtain vouchers from Stewards to collect prize money from the Secretary's Office during the Show.
